

Davorin Pichler was born on August 26, 1974 in Osijek. He graduated from the Faculty of Law in Osijek in 2002. During his studies, he received a scholarship from the Ministry of Science and Education and was awarded the Rector's Award. From 2002 to 2005, he worked as an intern at the Municipal Court in Beli Manastir. In July 2004, he passed the bar exam. From April 1, 2005 to January 31, 2006, he worked at the Institute for Informatics Osijek, as a legal officer. Since February 1, 2006, he has been employed at the Faculty of Law in Osijek as an assistant. In 2006, he enrolled in postgraduate doctoral studies in civil law and family law at the Faculty of Law in Zagreb. He defended his doctoral dissertation entitled "Private health insurance in the health insurance system" at the Faculty of Law in Zagreb. He completed his pedagogical-psychological and didactic-methodical training in 2011 at the Faculty of Educational Sciences in Osijek. He speaks English actively and German passively. As part of his scientific research work, he participates from 2020 to 2025 in the scientific project "Civil Substantive and Procedural Law in the 21st Century - Current State and Future Tendencies (IP-PRAVOS-7) funded by Josip Juraj Strossmayer University in Osijek. In his previous scientific activity, he published two scientific monographs and multi-scientific works in domestic and international scientific journals and publications in the field of civil law, and presented at scientific meetings in the country and abroad.