

EU Child OSIJEK DOCTORAL CONFERENCE

Jean Monnet Chair on Cross-Border Movement of a Child in EU aims to encourage, advice and mentor young generation in EU studies to cross-border child movement. PhD students are encouraged to take part in conference, to conduct/present a research, prepare a quality scientific paper, either alone or together with their supervisors.

We encourage research on cross-border child movement related to:

- private international law of child movement
- EU agenda for Children
- family reunification
- access to justice for children
- child and adjudicating procedure (civil/criminal/administrative)
- criminal aspects of child migrations / abductions / trafficking
- child labour and youth employment
- child protection - substantive family law
- children refugees / children migrants
- child and fundamental rights
- child and identity
- children and successions / property situated abroad
- relevant ECtHR and CJEU rulings
