

Dr. Tunjica Petrašević, assistant professor

tpetrase@pravos.hr

Assistant Professor, holds Chair in EU law. Professional orientation towards EU law derives from Postgraduate (doctoral) study of European Law at the Faculty of Law in Zagreb (2011). He holds and teaches four courses in EU Law. In 2010, he did part of his doctoral research as a visiting researcher at Johannes Kepler University in Linz (Austria). In 2010 he was also trainee (stagiere) at the European Court of Justice in the office of Slovenian judge Mr. Ilešić. In 2011, he defended his doctoral thesis "Preliminary Ruling Procedure before the European Court of Justice with special reference to its implementation in national legal systems of Member States". In 2013, he was Erasmus visiting professor at Johannes Kepler University in Linz. In April 2014, he was Erasmus visiting professor at Univeristy in Vilnius (Lathuia). He was one of teaching staff at the LLP European Module "EU Law: Basic Introduction Preliminary Ruling Procedure, Legal Aspects and Regional and International Cooperation in the EU", which has expired on 31 August 2014. He holds Jean Monnet Chair in EU procedural law, reg.no. 553095-EPP-1-2014-1-HR-EPPJMO-CHAIR (2014-2017). He is also Vice-dean for science and postgraduate studies.