

Dr. Branka Rešetar, associate professor

bresetar@pravos.hr

Associated Professor, holds Chair in Family Law at Faculty of Law Osijek. She had been lawyer at law firm (traineeships 1994-2000). Her professional interests are in children rights, matrimonial property, divorce at national, European and international level. She teaches Family law, Child law and Family mediation. She was head of Commission working on new Croatian Family Act (2015) appointed by Ministry of Social Welfares and author as well as had of lifelong interdisciplinary program Child procedural right.

In area of international activities she is Croatian expert for Commission on European Family law as well as member of International Society of Family Law.