

dr. Mario Vinković, associate professor mvinkovi@pravos.hr

Vice-rector of UNIOS for teaching and students; Associate Professor of Labour and Social Security Law at the Faculty of Law; Director of PhD Programme in European Studies at the PhD School for Social Sciences and Humanities (2011-) where established and developed curricula; Former Director of University Advanced Master in European Studies Programme (2007-2011). Extensively researched in the area of European Labour and Equality Law with a particular emphasis on gender issues, child labour, human trafficking, prostitution etc. Since 2008 have been visiting professor at University of Bihac, Bosnia and Herzegovina. Member of Supervisory Board of the Croatian Judicial Academy, expert adviser to the Trade Unions and the Ministry of Labour, as well as NGO “Mobbing” Zagreb. Involved in Hungarian Academy of Science and University of Pecs Project on the European and Hungarian labour law together with the prominent scholars from the EU, USA, Australia and Japan. Held Jean Monnet Chair in EU Labour, Equality and Human Rights Law (2013-2016).