

Towards Universal Parenthood in Europe

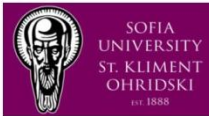

UNIPAR

PROJECT AIMS

1. Identifying parenthood issues arising in connection to existing EU secondary law, also analysing the possible impact of the Parenthood Regulation at the EU level.
2. Analysing how parenthood is dealt with in the (PIL) domestic law in six jurisdictions, also on the basis of sample cases.
3. Discussing the issues with stakeholders, through a dedicated international workshop in Brussels and six national seminars.
4. Developing Conclusions and Recommendations. The Final Conclusions and Recommendations will be presented at an International Final Conference and published in an Open Access book.
