	1.4.
	1.	History of European integration and EU enlargement - in this part students are introduced to the process of integration in Europe in general, and in particular the emergence of European communities (European Coal and Steel Community, EURATOM and the European Economic Community) as forerunners of today's EU. Then students are introduced to the waves of EU enlargement, and special attention is paid to Croatia's accession to the EU.

- 2. Sources of EU law in this part students are introduced to the sources of EU law. In this way, students will get acquainted with the Founding Treaties and all their amendments and general principles of law as the primary sources of EU law. EU secondary law includes legal acts of the institutions (regulations, guidelines and decisions), international agreements concluded by the EU with third countries or international organizations, and the case law of the Court of Justice of the EU.
- Basic principles of European law despite a lot of legal regulations, there are still certain areas that are not regulated. In order to avoid legal gaps, the Court of Justice has taken on the role of filling them. The aim of this part of the lecture is to show the application of general principles of law in the practice of the Court of Justice of the EU.
- 4. EU institutions in this part the student acquires knowledge about the structure of the basic institutions of the European Union and understanding of their role in the decision-making process in the EU.
- 5. European Court students acquire knowledge about the structure, selection of judges and various branches of jurisdiction of the Court of Justice of the EU.
- 6. Preliminary Ruling Procedure before the Court of Justice of The EU.
- 7. Effects of EU law in the internal law of the member states knowledge and understanding of the relationship between European law and national law, and in particular national constitutional law.
- 8. EU Internal Market in this section students are introduced to 4 fundamental market freedoms (freedom of movement of people, goods, services and capital) and possible restrictions on these freedoms, with special emphasis on studying the relevant case law of the Court of Justice.
- 9. European citizenship students get acquainted with the concept of EU citizenship, how it is acquired or lost, what rights derive from it and under what conditions a citizen of an EU Member State can be expelled from the host country.
- 10. Protection of fundamental rights in the EU in this part students are introduced to the content of the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the EU and how to protect human rights within the EU.
- 11. Council of Europe law and the European Court of Human Rights in this part the student gets acquainted with the Council of Europe, its founding, institutions and its actions, with special attention paid to the European Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms and protection mechanisms before the European Court of Human Rights.

1.12. Method of monitoring the quality which enables acquisition of knowledge, skills and competences

Quality is controlled by monitoring class attendance and monitoring student reactions. Students can contact the teachers from the department at any time, in person or by e-mail. Furthermore, after the implementation of the program, students are interviewed about the quality of teaching. The results of the survey are taken into account when changing the curriculum and teaching methods. The results of the survey are taken into account when changing the curriculum and teaching methods.
